

HANNAH CRAIG

Hannah Craig, dancer and choreographer, was born in Houston, Texas where she graduated from The High School of Performing and Visual Arts. She is a recent graduate from The Boston Conservatory at Berklee with a B.F.A. in Contemporary Dance. She has trained with prestigious choreographers, such as Craig Black, Matt Luck, Jennifer Archibald, and Zach Tang. Since graduating in 2020, Hannah has been teaching and choreographing around the Houston area, as well as creating her own non-profit organization, Transformative Grounds. Hannah is excited to have the opportunity to be a part of the Athletistry faculty and give back to where it all began for her dancing career.
