

CAITLIN RADER

At the age of three, Caitlin Rader started her dance journey at the studio that Ms. Traci would one day call her own. Her love of dance eventually led her to Houston's High School for the Performing and Visual Arts (HSPVA).

After two years at HSPVA, Caitlin felt dance leading her in a different direction. Her last two years of high school were spent dancing as an officer on the drill team. Upon graduating, Caitlin attended the University of Texas at Austin and received a degree in Psychology. During her college years and after, Ms. Traci allowed Caitlin to pursue her love of dance at Athletistry.

Caitlin's love for children and teaching has defined her career in both the dance world and outside. Caitlin loves all things dance, football, and family. With the encouragement of Ms. Traci and the Athletistry family, Caitlin has been able to fulfill all of her dance dreams. Her greatest hope as a dance teacher is that she will have the same positive impact on her students that Ms. Traci had on her.
